CORNELL VS. HARVARD HOCKEY

RAFFLE

On Monday, October 22, 2007, should CCNH have any remaining tickets to the 11/16/07 Cornell-Harvard men's hockey game at Harvard, the right to purchase the remaining tickets will be raffled off in pairs.

Entries must be received Thursday, November 1, 2007. (Entries received after 11/1/07 may not be considered).

The drawing will be Saturday, November 3, 2007. Winners will be posted to the events page of ccnh.alumni.cornell.edu website.

Each entry, for the opportunity to purchase a pair of tickets, costs $5, where the proceeds will benefit the "William R. Robertson '34 CCNH Scholarship Fund".

While the number of entries a person may purchase/submit, the number of tickets is limited to 4. (e.g. "Joe" may choose to purchase 6 entries for the lottery, for $30, he may win the ability to purchase a maximum of 4 tickets...and there is a chance that he may not win at all.)

Questions about the number of tickets to be raffled can be addressed to Jill Mayo '88 at LJM28@cornell.edu after 10/20/07. (in the past, CCNH had between 26 and 40 available tickets)

Questions clarifying the process can also be asked beforehand of Jill at the above address.
