

SECTION D TONIGHT

Friday, November 14, 1986

Cornell vs. Army

Preview: Looks and stats can be deceiving. Army may have had a poor, 2-9 record in the ECAC last season, but it could have easily been better. One goal losses to Cornell, Vermont(1-0, in the last minute), and Dartmouth(6-5, OT) demonstrate this fact. This is the first year Army will be playing a full ECAC schedule, the last two being only 11 games as a preliminary route to becoming full members of the league. Bearing this in mind, Army can't be taken lightly by the Red.

Players to Watch on the Cadets:

Rob Brenner, Kevin Keenan, and Matt Wilson.

These three form the most dangerous Army line.

Vinny Bono is their highest scoring defenseman.

In goal, senior Paul DeGironimo is solid.

Last Year's Result: Cornell 4 Army 3

Nov. 16, 1985 at West Point, N.Y. Following an opening night loss at Princeton, the Red escaped with victory on two late third period goals.

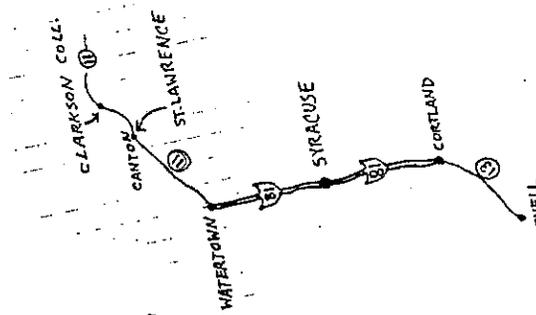

The "Where Are They Now" File

We all know that Doug Dadswell was drafted last year by the Calgary Flames and, with the attraction of a million dollar contract, left Cornell. As fate would have it, his arch-rival, Grant Blair, Haarvahd's goalie, was also selected by Calgary. Last year, many Harvard fans argued: 'Dadswell is good, but Blair is better'. Wrong again, Winthrop, Winchester, and the rest of you overbearing, pompous Cambridge fools. After training camp, Dadswell was the last goalie cut, and was sent to the top minor league affiliate, Moncton of the AHL. Meanwhile, Blair was sent to Salt Lake City of the famed IHL (International Hockey League), also known as "the Iron League". The AHL is usually where the NHL clubs send their top prospects to get experience. The IHL, however, is where they send those destined to be career minor leaguers, meaning that it's time to improve your left hook, instead of your slap shot. A further note: word has it that Dadswell set the Calgary training camp record for most sit-ups (over 400 in a row).

Other Cornell Players in the Pros

Brian Hayward '82.....Goaltender, Montreal Canadiens NHL
Darren Eliot '83.....Goaltender, Los Angeles Kings NHL
Duanne Moeser '86.....Forward, Flint IHL (sorry, can't win 'em all)

Cornell on the Road: How to get to Clarkson and St. Lawrence (~4 hrs)

What is this, anyway?

We're a group of Lynah Faithful who want to provide fans, especially Section D maniacs, with free information that they can't get elsewhere, or worse, have to pay for. In the proud tradition of MSG's Blue Seats Tonight, we'll attempt to blend humour and commentary with stats and other pertinent data to thrill and amaze you. By the way, the administration said we couldn't do this because it will compete with the sales of their program.... Yeah, right.

Last Year's ECAC Standings:

Team	Won	Lost	Tied	%	GF	GA
Harvard	18	3	0	.857	129	53
Yale	15	6	0	.714	104	72
Cornell	13	6	2	.667	101	74
R.P.I.	13	7	1	.643	100	88
Clarkson	12	6	3	.643	101	70
Vermont	11	10	0	.524	64	63
St. Lawrence	10	11	0	.476	92	92
Colgate	9	11	1	.452	82	109
Princeton	7	13	1	.357	76	82
Dartmouth	4	17	0	.190	59	121
Army	2	9	0	.182	36	57
Brown	3	18	0	.143	63	127

1985-86 STATS (all games)

	Cornell	G-A	Army	G-A
Leading scorer (Returning)	Nieuwendyk	26-28	Wilson	22-28
	Norton	8-22	Brenner	19-31
	(the rest graduated)		Keenan	19-29
Power Play	30 of 104 for 28.8% (3rd in ECAC)		11 of 55 for 20% (9th in ECAC)
Penalty Killing	98 of 126 for 77.8% (4th in ECAC)		33 of 46 for 71.7% (11th in ECAC)

Next Issue:

Review of Sidney Sheldon's new bestseller Young Laing: The Forgotten Kennedy. The story of a young man cast out from his family for his oppressive moralistic views and staunch conservatism.

Cornell

No.	Name	Pos.	Cl.	Ht.	Wt.
1.	Jim Edmands	G	Sr.	5-10	165
2.	John Parry	D	Sr.	6-2	210
3.	Paul Winters	D	Fr.	5-10	185
4.	Chris Norton	D	Jr.	6-2	200
5.	Andy Craig (C)	D	Sr.	5-9	180
6.	Keith Donovan	D	So.	6-1	205
7.	Chris Grenier	C	So.	5-10	185
8.	Jim Goerz	C	Fr.	5-10	185
9.	Pat Heaphy	W	Jr.	5-9	170
10.	Mike Tallman	W	Fr.	5-9	165
11.	Keith Howie	W	Sr.	5-9	185
14.	Dave Crombeen	W	Jr.	6-2	210
15.	Darren Snyder	W	So.	6-0	180
16.	Mark Major	C	Sr.	5-9	180
17.	Neil Paterson	W	Fr.	5-9	170
19.	Pete Marcov	W	Sr.	5-10	180
20.	Casey Jones	W	Fr.	5-11	165
21.	Alan Tigert	D	So.	6-1	200
22.	Craig Donovan	D	Jr.	6-0	195
23.	Ross Lemon	W	Fr.	6-1	185
24.	Dave Shippel	W	Sr.	5-11	180
25.	Joe Nieuwendyk(C)	C	Jr.	6-2	200
26.	Rob Levasseur	C	So.	6-0	195
27.	Stewart Smith	W	So.	6-1	190
28.	Wayne Skeiton	G	Fr.	5-7	165
29.	Darin McInnis	G	So.	6-2	190
30.	Don Fawcett	G	Sr.	5-11	180

Head Coach: Lou Reycroft

Assistants: Peter Johnson and Mike Schafer?!?!